Online Book Launch

“Labour Migration in the Time of Covid-19: Inequalities and Perspectives for Change”, edited by Fulvia Staiano and Giulia Ciliberto, CNR Edizioni, 2021

7 April 2022, 10:00

The Summer School on Labour Migration in the European Union (EULab Summer School) is pleased to invite you to the launch of the book “Labour Migration in the Time of Covid-19: Inequalities and Perspectives for Change” (CNR Edizioni, 2021), edited by Prof. Fulvia Staiano and Dr. Giulia Ciliberto.

The contributions collected in this open access volume provide vivid illustrations of the dramatic impact produced by the COVID-19 pandemic on economies and societies around the world. Migrant workers and labour migration fluxes have been far from exempt from the negative consequences of the so-called “new coronavirus”. The book aims to shine a light on the protection gaps unveiled by COVID-19 as well as on the strengths and weaknesses of States’ responses to the difficulties experienced by migrant workers worldwide during the pandemic.

The editors and the authors of the book will be joined by Prof. Fulvio Maria Palombino (University of Naples Federico II) and Dr. Giovanni Carlo Bruno (IRISS – CNR), who will open the launch with introductory speeches.

This volume is among the initiatives related to the EULab Summer School on Labour Migration in the European Union, a project funded with the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union.
