SCHOLARSHIP HOLDER - IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF HUMANITY - XVI ROSMINIAN SYMPOSIUM COURSE

08/2015

Organizing body: International Center for Rosminian Studies

Description:The exciting progress in the field of neuroscience (biology, genetics, neurology, study of primates, etc.) has called into question the traditional metaphysical psychologies (Plato, Aristotle, Thomas) and of the deep (Freud, Jung, Adler, Husserl), forcing them to compete with the new discoveries and to test the extent of their effectiveness. The results of science, in turn, will influence the type of treatment to be used in the diseases of the soul, which psychiatry is interested in.
