

Tullio Treves

Born: Tucumán, Argentina, 20th September 1942.

Education: Doctor of Law, University of Milan (1964).

Professional Experience:

Professor of International Law, University of Sassari (1969-1973); University of Turin (1974-1980); University of Milan (1980-present).

Legal Adviser to the Permanent Mission of Italy to the UN in New York (1984-1992).

Counsel for France in the case against Canada decided by an Arbitral Tribunal concerning the Delimitation of Maritime Areas in the Region of Saint-Pierre-et-Miquelon (1990-1991); Counsel for Finland in the case concerning Passage through the Great Belt (Finland v. Denmark) before the International Court of Justice (1991-1992).

Taught on several International Law and Law of the Sea courses and lectured at universities in many countries.

Member of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea since 1 October 1996; President of the Seabed Disputes Chamber 1999-2002 and since 2 October 2008; President of the Chamber for Marine Environment Disputes 2002-2005; President of the Chamber for Fisheries Disputes 2005-2008.

Other: president of the European Council for Environmental Law; member of several institutions related to the Law of the Sea and International Law; member of several Commissions, working-groups, Steering Committees and Editorial Boards.

Publications: Author of numerous books and articles in various fields of public and private international law, law of the sea and environmental law, including The Exploitation of the International Seabed (in Italian), 1982; The Law of the Sea, the European Union and its Member States, 1997; The United Nations Compensation Commission; A Handbook (with M. Frigessi di Ratalma), 1999; Le controversie internazionali, nuove tendenze, nuovi tribunali (International Disputes, New Trends, New Tribunals), 1999; International law, fundamental problems (in Italian), 2005; member of the board of editors of the Rivista di diritto internazionale privato e processuale and Ocean Development and International Law.