

Resume

Anthony J.C. Ladd

Professor: Chemical Engineering

Education

University of Bristol, Bristol, England B.Sc. 1974 Chemistry (1st Class Honors)

University of Cambridge, Cambridge, England Ph.D 1978 Theoretical Chemistry

Professional Experience

2000 - Professor, Chemical Engineering Department, University of Florida

1998 - 2000 Associate Professor, Chemical Engineering Department, University of Florida

1994 - 1995 Visiting Professor, Cornell University, Department of Theoretical and Applied Mechanics

(On sabbatical leave from LLNL 08/94–07/95)

1986 - 1997 Staff Scientist, Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory

1984 - 1986 Post-doctoral research assistant, Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory

1979 - 1984 Post-doctoral research assistant, University of California, Davis

1978 - 1979 Post-doctoral research assistant, Catholic University of America

Honors and Awards

Thomas Baron Award, 2010

Humboldt Research Award, 2006

University of Florida Research Foundation Professor, 2005

Fellow American Physical Society, 1998

Mary Upson Distinguished Visiting Professor, Cornell University, 1994 - 1995

T. E. Garner Prize, University of Bristol, 1974

Publications (about 130 research papers published in international journals)

<http://ww2.che.ufl.edu/ladd/publications.php>