

Short Biography - VLATKA VANICEK

Vlatka Vanicek is actually the Director of Safety and Environment Protection Sector for the Croatian Hydrocarbon Agency. As Director she is also Chair of the Coordination for safety of offshore hydrocarbon exploration and exploitation (national Competent authority for Offshore safety Directive) she also assure the Participation in EU bodies and work groups (European Union Offshore Oil and Gas Authorities Group, Barcelona Convention Offshore Oil and Gas Group, Hydrocarbons BREF TWG), the Monitoring obligations for Environmental preservation, monitoring of prescribed measurements, standards harmonization. She is also involved in the decommission and re-use pilot project. Previously she worked as Deputy Exploration Manager for INAGIP S.p.A. for 11 years. She has a Ph.D. in Geology and Earth Science obtained at the Faculty of Science University of Zagreb.