

CURRICULUM VITAE
ANITA SLONIMSKA

EDUCATION

2016 – 2019(15 September)

Institute of Cognitive Sciences and Technologies, CNR, Rome, Italy &
Radboud University in Nijmegen, Netherlands

- External PhD candidate
- Fellow of Marie Skłodowska-Curie innovative training project DCOMM (No 676063)
- The role of iconicity and simultaneity for efficient communication: a case of Italian Sign Language

2015 – 2016

Radboud University in Nijmegen, Netherlands

- Master of Arts (with MPhil supplement) – Cum Laude
- Language and Communication (specialisation in psycholinguistics)
- MA thesis (supervisor: Dr. Sean R. Roberts):
A case for systematic sound symbolism in pragmatics

2014 – 2015

Radboud University in Nijmegen, Netherlands

- Master of Arts - Bene meritum
- Linguistics
- MA thesis (supervisors: Prof. Asli Özyurek and Dr. Emanuela Campisi):
Markers of communicative relevance of gesture in multimodal demonstrations to adults and children

2009 - 2012

Latvian Academy of Culture, Riga, Latvia

- Bachelor of Arts
- Intercultural relations between Latvia and Italy
- BA thesis (supervisor: Dr. Anna Kalve):
The phenomenon of Italian emblematic gestures

LANGUAGES

Latvian – Native Russian – Native

English – Advanced (certified C1), Italian –Advanced (certified C2)

Spanish – Elementary (A2), LIS (Italian Sign Language) – Intermediate

SKILLS

SPSS: repeated measures ANOVA, univariate/multivariate ANOVA, T-tests, Chi², linear and logistic regression, non-parametric mean comparisons)

R (basic programming skills, basic corpus analysis, decision tree analysis, linear mixed models analysis, reliability tests, data visualization with ggplot2)

ELAN (segmentation and annotation of visual (gesture and sign language) and audio data