Empowering Diversity in Science

Gender and Cultural diversity in Chemical Research: experiences and conversation

The Global Women Breakfast (GWB) is a successful yearly IUPAC initiative, held in conjunction with the U.N. Day of Women and Girls in Science, aimed at establishing an active network of both women and men to overcome the barriers to gender equality in science. Women and men from all types of science organizations come together to share breakfast either virtually or in person.

The Italian commission for IUPAC (NAO-CNR) organizes a virtual GWB2022 event for discussing how empowering gender and cultural diversity in chemical research. Women from different countries, working in chemical research, who have crossed Italy on their way, will tell us their experiences. We will discuss the topic with eminent international chemists.

With the kind participation of Prof. Maria Chiara Carrozza, President of CNR
